

Features will feature articles that will be of significant interest to the audience but are not related to the specific terms. They could touch on current topics that are relevant to the work of the school leader. The articles will include the following:

1. Profile. This article will profile a current school leader who has achieved success in a particular area of school improvement. It will focus on specific innovative practices and tips for the reader.
2. Report. This article will deal with a current policy or recent announcement and seek views and feedback. It will enable the reader to have a better sense of the policy and its potential impact.
3. Perspectives. This section will be kept as a platform for school leaders to share research or editorial pieces, not related to the specific theme, with readers.
